THE GRAND JURY CHARGES:

Count One — Conspiracy to Commit Computer Intrusion (18 U.S.C. §1030(b))

1. At all times relevant to this Indictment, the defendant Oleksandr Tymoshenko ("Tymoshenko"), a national of Ukraine resident in Kyiv, operated and held himself out under the online handle "Oberon" on the EternalBlack Marketplace (eternalblack.fr) and related platforms.

2. From in or about November 2022 through and including the date of this Indictment, Tymoshenko operated a 'stresser' service marketed at oberondos[.]top and stresser-vip[.]net, providing on-demand distributed denial-of-service (DDoS) attacks against victims located within the United States, including financial institutions, e-commerce providers, and educational institutions, in exchange for payment in virtual currency.

Count Two — Wire Fraud (18 U.S.C. §1343)

Count Three — Wire Fraud (18 U.S.C. §1343)

...

Count Sixteen — Operating an Unlicensed Money Transmitting Business
(18 U.S.C. §1960)

17. By means of the service described above, Tymoshenko accepted in excess of USD 12,400,000 in virtual-currency payments from customers, predominantly in Bitcoin, knowing that the payments related to unlawful activity. He laundered the proceeds principally through the HYDRA9 mixing service (separately designated by the U.S. Treasury on 2026-03-09 pursuant to OFAC action OFAC-2026-0309-HYDRA9MIX).

Count Seventeen — Money Laundering Conspiracy (18 U.S.C. §1956(h))

FORFEITURE ALLEGATIONS:

Upon conviction of any of the foregoing offenses, the defendant shall forfeit to the United States, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §981(a)(1)(C) and 28 U.S.C. §2461(c):

- (a) the contents of XBT address bc1qpyrr1c1nv01c11gfakeb00ter2025aabbccdd (approximate balance at time of seizure: 9.47 BTC);
